Due to the our Upstander Kickoff on Friday, we will treat this as a 4-day week and have our reading test on Thursday. Rather than a paper A-Z book, your child will bring home a picture book this week. We will read the book throughout the week and on Thursday, students will complete an exit ticket over our skill of story elements (character, setting, problem, solution). Please be sure to return the book each day because we do not have extras.
